COVENANT OF BENEDICTION

Pastor: God has been gracious to us. I thank you, the congregation of Greystone Baptist Church, for the blessing of being your pastor.

Congregation: We thank you for your ministry to and with us, and wish for you, Jamie, Avery, Hannah and Max, God's blessings as you enter this next phase of your faith journey.

Pastor: It is my prayer that you continue in the mission and ministry to which you have been called. I covenant to pray for you, to speak well of you, to maintain confidentiality in the pastoral conversations we have shared, and to relinquish all pastoral responsibilities so your current ministry staff and the next pastor may minister to you fully.

Congregation: We will call upon our current staff and our new pastor to minister to us fully, including the ministry of funerals. We will understand that you cannot return to do such ministry, and thus will have confidence in our staff ministers and senior pastor to minister to us.

Pastor: As able, I shall respond to invitations of your pastor to assist in special services, and will look forward to our fellowship in the greater association of our churches and ministries in our community. I am grateful for your continued friendship.

Congregation and Pastor: We covenant together to be thankful for the ministries we have shared, to forgive one another when we have failed, and to live out our lives faithfully as we listen to God's Spirit.
