The Worship of God

Sunday, January 16

We ask that you please continue to wear a mask at all times while indoors, out of respect for the health and safety of all people joining us for worship. When congregational songs are sung in worship this morning, we invite you to listen prayerfully and participate in other safe ways if you feel so moved - feel free to stand, move, clap, drum on the pew in front of you, etc. Texts are provided for your personal reflection.

Prelude

“O Love That Wilt Not Let Me Go”
Cynthia Griesedieck

arr. John Purifoy

Welcome

✠ Call to Worship

Psalm 36:5-9 (NIV)

One: Your love, Lord, reaches to the heavens,

All: your faithfulness to the skies.

One: Your righteousness is like the highest mountains,

All: your justice like the great deep.

One: You, Lord, preserve both people and animals.
How priceless is your unfailing love, O God!

All: People take refuge in the shadow of your wings.

One: They feast on the abundance of your house;

All: You give them drink from your river of delights.

One: For with you is the fountain of life;

All: in your light, we see light.

✠ Please rise in body or spirit.

Opening Song

“Will You Come and Follow Me”

KELVINGROVE;

Words by John L. Bell and Graham Maule,

Music: Scottish Melody arr. John L. Bell

“Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don’t know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown; will you let my name be known;
will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?”

“Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?”

“Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name?
Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean, and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean in you and you in me?”

“Will you love the ‘you’ you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you’ve found to reshape the world around,
through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?”

Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.
In your company I’ll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I’ll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

Musical Reflection

“Be Thou My Vision”

SLANE;

GBC Virtual Choir    Words: Irish Poem Trans. Mary E. Byrne,
Music: Irish Ballad Harm. David Evans

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
naught be all else to me, save that thou art;
thou my best thought, by day or by night,
waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.

Be thou my wisdom, and thou my true Word;
I ever with thee and thou with me, Lord;
thou my soul's shelter, and thou my high tower;
raise thou me heavenward, O Power of my power.

Riches I heed not, nor vain, empty praise;
thou, mine inheritance, now and always;
thou and thou only, first in my heart,
High King of Heaven, my treasure thou art.
