The Worship of God

Sunday, February 20

We ask that you please continue to wear a mask at all times while indoors, out of respect for the health and safety of all people joining us for worship. When congregational songs are sung in worship this morning, we invite you to listen prayerfully and participate in other safe ways if you feel so moved - feel free to stand, move, clap, drum on the pew in front of you, etc. Texts are provided for your personal reflection.

† Call to Worship

One: I bow down and give thanks to your name for your steadfast love and faithfulness.

All: On the day I called, you answered me, you increased my strength of soul.

One: Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you stretch out your hand and deliver me.

All: Your steadfast love, O Lord, endures forever. Do not forsake the work of your hands.

One: Let us worship God!

Opening Song

“Reckless Love”

Christian Mclvor

Words and Music by Cory Asbury,
Caleb Culver, and Ran Jackson

Verse 1:

Before I spoke a word, You were singing over me;

You have been so, so good to me.

Before I took a breath, You breathed Your life in me;

You have been so so kind to me.

(cont’d next page)

† Please rise in body or spirit.

Chorus:

O, the overwhelming, never-ending, reckless love of God;
O, it chases me down, fights 'til I'm found, leaves the ninety-nine.
I couldn't earn it, I don't deserve it, still You give Yourself away.
O, the overwhelming, never-ending, reckless love of God, yeah...

Verse 2:

When I was Your foe, still Your love fought for me;
You have been so so good to me.
When I felt no worth, You paid it all for me;
But You have been so, so kind to me.

(Chorus)

Bridge:

There's no shadow You won't light up,
Mountain You won't climb up
Coming after me.
There's no wall You won't kick down,
Lie You won't tear down
Coming after me.

(Chorus)

“O Day of Rest and Gladness”

ES FLOG EIN KLEINS
WALDVÖGELEIN;

Words by C. Wordsworth and
C.P. Price, 17th Century German Melody

O day of rest and gladness, O day of joy and light,
O balm of care and sadness, most beautiful, most bright;
On you, the high and lowly, through ages joined in tune,
Sing “Holy, holy, holy” to the great God Triune.

On you, at earth’s creation the light first had its birth;
On you, for our salvation Christ rose from depths of earth;
On you, our Lord victorious sent Spirit forth from heaven.
And thus on you, most glorious, a triple light was given.

On you, God's people, meeting, the Holy Scripture hear,
Christ's living presence greeting, through bread and wine made near.
New graces ever gaining from this our day of rest,
we reach the rest remaining to spirits of the blest.

Silent Reflection

Musical Reflection

“We Will Rise Again”
Christian McIvor

Words and music by,
Christian McIvor ©2019

Verse 1:

This world can make you weary, this world can bring you down,
Battered, beaten, and teary-eyed as you're trampled on the ground;
And when you feel like you might pack it in, when you think you might be done,
Remember to look deep within, 'cause in him, you've already won.

Verse 2:

Sometimes it seems we can't do right, and everything is wrong;
Clouds are blocking out the light and we've forgotten how to sing our song.
Just feel the main vibration, let your heart beat with the word;
In Christ, we find our transformation, in him, the music's heard.

Chorus:

It's in his grace that we are saved,
Unbound from fear of the grave,
It's in his hope and love that we're carried through the dark night of the soul;
Because he lives, we will rise again.
Yeah, Jesus lives, and we will rise again.

Verse 3:

We'll keep movin' on and shake the dust, 'cause this road isn't always straight;
Standing tall for truth and justice, driving out the hate.
Giving what we can to those in need, serving all creation;
In the Christ who lives, we're freed, and we find our salvation.

(Chorus)

Hymn of Response

“All Things Bright and Beautiful”
Christian Mclvor

ROYAL OAK;
Words by Cecil Frances Alexander,
English Melody

Refrain:

All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small,
all things wise and wonderful, the Lord God made them all.

Each little flower that opens, each little bird that sings,
God made their glowing colors; God made their tiny wings.

(Refrain)

The purple-headed mountain, the river running by,
the sunset, and the morning that brightens up the sky:

(Refrain)

The cold wind in the winter, the pleasant summer sun, the ripe fruits in the garden, God made them every one.

(Refrain)

God gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell how great is God Almighty, who has made all things well.

(Refrain)
