The Worship of God

Sunday, February 6

We ask that you please continue to wear a mask at all times while indoors, out of respect for the health and safety of all people joining us for worship. When congregational songs are sung in worship this morning, we invite you to listen prayerfully and participate in other safe ways if you feel so moved - feel free to stand, move, clap, drum on the pew in front of you, etc. Texts are provided for your personal reflection.

Offertory Hymn

"For the Fruit of All Creation"

AR HYDY NOS;
Words by Fred Pratt Green,
Welsh Melody

For the fruit of all creation, thanks be to God.
For the gifts to every nation, thanks be to God.
For the plowing, sowing, reaping, silent growth while we are sleeping, future needs in earth's safekeeping, thanks be to God.

In the just reward of labor, God's will be done.
In the help we give our neighbor, God's will be done.
In our worldwide task of caring for the hungry and despairing,
in the harvests we are sharing, God's will be done.

For the harvests of the Spirit, thanks be to God.
For the good we all inherit, thanks be to God.
For the wonders that astound us, for the truths that still confound us, most of all that love has found us, thanks be to God.

Silent Reflection

Musical Reflection

“Extravagant Love”

Words by Lenora Rand,
Music by Hanna Rand

Verse 1:

Me versus you. Us versus them.
Looks like the only game in town
Be the winner or you'll lose
Somehow we all end up down.
O God, We look for You
in the ashes of this mess.
O God you offer us
Your tenderness.

Chorus:

Extravagant mercy,
Extravagant grace,
Extravagant love,
In your embrace;
Love that changes us
Changes the game,
Love that changes everything.
Love changes everything.

Verse 2:

Don't show weakness. Don't show our hands.
We make our moves. We play our parts.
Don't ask if this is all there is Lower our eyes. And close our hearts.
O God, We look for You
in the ashes of this mess.
O God you offer us
Your tenderness. (Chorus)

Bridge:

There is enough,
There is enough,
There is enough to go around. (Chorus)
