Prelude

"Ukrainian Alleluia"

by Craig Courtney

Tim Hendrix, Heather Choplin, and Elizabeth Worley

In the summer of 2007, composer Craig Courtney was part of a mission team that traveled to the Ukraine. Courtney observed: "Due to its geographical position and rich natural resources, the country has a history of foreign invasion, occupation, and oppression." Moved by the fact that over 25 million Ukrainians died in the 20th century due to starvation, war, and the worst nuclear accident (Chernobyl) in history, Courtney composed a new choral piece called "Ukrainian Alleluia", with only one word - "Alleluia". He describes the piece as a "musical portrayal of the Ukrainians' voice of faith, strength, and hope in the midst of unimaginable suffering and tragedy." Early in 2022, in light of the most recent conflict of the Russian invasion, Courtney reimagined the composition as a piano solo. Today, we share it as a piano prelude paired with excerpts of the vocal work.

This text affirms that the images we use for God can be inspired by either gender because both males and females reflect the image and likeness of God (Genesis 1:27). Similarly, since God is with us at all stages of life, all ages hold the potential to reveal something about God.

Offertory Anthem

"Roll Down, Justice!"

GBC Adult Choir

By Mark A. Miller

There's a voice, strong and clear, ringing out far and near,
"Let justice roll down, let justice roll down!"
Like the rush of a stream, comes a powerful dream,
Let justice roll down, justice rolls down!

Let the earth be restored, every soul be reformed;
Let the healing renew, creation reborn.
Here in this sacred space with the strength of God's grace,
Let justice roll down, justice rolls down!

Refrain:

Roll down! Roll down, justice!
Roll like an ever-flowing stream.
Roll down! Roll down, justice!
Roll like an ever-flowing stream,
Flowing stream, roll down!

Let your heart soar, open the doors wide,
Let your mind be transformed, let it be,
Let it be opened by love, by love;
Opened by love.

On this glorious day give us courage, we pray,
That justice rolls down, let justice roll down.
Let the vision take flight and God will delight
As the waters flow down, justice abounds!
(Refrain)

Come, thou fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing your grace.
Streams of justice, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount! I'm fixed upon it, mount of God's unchanging love!
(Refrain)

Roll down! Roll down!
