A NOTE FROM PASTOR CHRISSEY

The first quarter of 2023 has been full of energy and excitement about our future. I continue to hear from you just how good it feels to be at Greystone. The people, the welcome, the joyful fellowship... it all feels so good. You will see that reflected in the pages that follow. Before you turn the page though (or scroll, if you're viewing this digitally), I want to tell you that we are experiencing some financial challenges (p.7). This is a critical moment in the life of our church. We have really worked hard to keep spending low and maximize every asset we have (people, property, and materials) but we need to generate more income in order to continue every aspect of ministry at current levels. So, even as we celebrate all that God is doing in our midst, we recognize the challenges that lie ahead. God has given us all that we need; let's face this challenge together!
