With Christ as the Cornerstone, we will build a church of living stones, where every member is a minister and is equipped to express God's love by word and deed to all people.

Based on 1 Peter 2:5, 6

By the loaves you break and give us, send us in your name to share bread for which the millions hunger, words that tell your love and care.
By your body broken for us, by your wine of life outpoured, Jesus, feed again your people. Be our Host, our Life, our Lord.

“Come, Let Us Join Our Friends Above”
Pam Weis

tune: FOREST GREEN,
arr. Edward Broughton

For centuries the Dutch placed Cradle Crosses over the beds of their infant children—that this symbol of the Christian faith might always be a part of the child’s consciousness.
Today we hang a Cradle Cross to celebrate the birth of Landyn Grace Yelton, 7/29/24.
Landyn is the daughter of Tate and Emily (Grimes) Yelton.

†Opening Hymn #207 “We Have Come to Join in Worship”

We have come to join in worship and adore the Lord our God.
Let us come in prayer, expecting God to speak His Mighty Word.
All is vain unless the spirit of the holy one comes down.
Christians, pray, and holy manna will be showered all around.

See them gather all around you, those he bought at such a cost.
See the weary, see the hurting, see the lonely, see the lost.
Be his hand, and touch the needy; be his gospel let it sound!
Be his body, and sweet manna will be showered all around.

Let us love our God supremely; let us love each other too.
Let us care for all his people till our God makes all things new.
Christ will call us home to heaven; at his banquet we'll sit down;
Christ himself will rise and serve us living manna all around.

“Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing”
GBC Choir

Words by Robert Robinson,
Music arr. Robert W. Thygerson

Come, thou Fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace;
Streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above;
Praise the mount! I'm fixed upon it, Mount of God's redeeming love!

Here I raise my Ebenezer (sing in praise), hither by thy help I'm come;
And I hope, by thy good pleasure (pray and hope), safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger, wand'ring from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger, interposed his precious love.

O to grace how great a debtor daily I'm constrained to be!
Let that grace now like a fetter, bind my wand'ring heart to thee:
Prone to wander, Lord I feel it, prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart, O take and seal it, seal it for thy;
Seal it for thy; seal it for thy courts above. Amen.
