†Call to Worship

One: Friends, this morning, each of us has planned our route and taken a particular road to get here.

All: Now as we gather, may we be open to a different road, a new direction, a life rerouted by encountering Christ.

One: This can mean leaving behind old patterns that amplify our fears and anxieties.

All: God sends us on new paths – through dreams, scripture, and quiet wonders – and leads us home changed.

One: Help us, Lord, to see your guiding star and to embrace the detours that draw us closer to you.

All: We will go home by another way, joyfully exploring the new paths God sets before us, praising and glorifying God for the new life found in Christ! Amen.

† Please rise in body or spirit.

† Hymn of Response    “Amazing Grace, How Sweet the Sound”

NEW BRITAIN
Words by John Newton Music from Columbian Harmony
arr. Edwin O. Excell (alt.)

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound,
that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
and grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already come.
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me;
his word my hope secures.
He will my shield and portion be as long as life endures.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
bright shining as the sun,
we've no less days to sing God's praise
than when we'd first begun.
